

COMMUNICATION

March, 2013

2013 FALL CONFERENCE – SAVE THE DATE!

The date has been set...Thursday, September 19th. This year's Fall Conference will shift to a more condensed one day format and will be hosted at the Inn at the Forks in Winnipeg. More information regarding registration will be distributed with the next communication. In the meantime, please mark your calendars!

SPRING MEETING RECAP

Thank you to all who attended the Annual Spring Meeting held at The Inn at the Forks on March 13th. Special thanks to guest speakers and presenters, Premier Greg Selinger, Laverne Siemens, Sara Comrie, Jill Ferguson and Commissioner Candice Molnar. As always, we welcome your feedback so please feel free to connect with any of the BAM Board Members.

As a follow-up to some of the information presented at the meeting, please see the following topics for further reference and consideration:

- Me Day! Canadian Women in Communications Manitoba Region is proud to present Me Day...a full-day professional development seminar focused on building confidence and skill awareness for communication professionals, Wednesday, April 3 at the Victoria Inn. All are welcome! For More information, contact Sara Comrie at sara.comrie@bellmedia.ca.
- Career Development Day BAM is pleased to partner with Assiniboine Community College on this new initiative which will serve to connect Manitoba's media students with Broadcasters. Initial plans are underway to develop the one day conference in September which will facilitate and stimulate constructive dialogue between broadcasters and students about the industry. Currently, BAM is seeking industry individuals who are willing to serve as workshop leaders or panelists. For more information, please contact Verna Lenton at LentonV@westmancom.com.

ANNUAL BAM AWARDS

The official Call for Nominations is just around the corner for the Annual BAM Awards. Once again, nominations will be accepted in the following categories: Broadcast Excellence, Hall of Fame (Builder & Broadcaster), and Broadcaster of Tomorrow. The full nomination package will be released with the next communication.